CRIMINAL BACKGROUND CHECKS

Geneva Housing Authority, as Management Agent for Geneva CESF Limited Partnership, conducts criminal background checks on all applicants when they are contacted for an apartment. Information obtained in the background check will be considered during the processing of the application for tenancy, and may result in denial of tenancy.

If tenancy is denied on the basis of a criminal background check, the applicant has the right to review, contest, and/or explain the information contained in the background check. The applicant may also present evidence of rehabilitation for consideration by management.

Please indicate each state or U.S. territory where you or any adult member of your household have lived. This disclosure is mandatory under HUD rules and criminal screening will be reviewed in each state or territory listed and via national criminal/sex offender databases. Failure to provide a complete and accurate list will result in the rejection of the application.

The information collection requirements contained in this form were submitted to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) under the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3501-3520). The public reporting burden is estimated at 15 minutes per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Section 644 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1992 (42 U.S.C. 13604) imposed on HUD the obligation to require housing providers participating in HUD's assisted housing programs to provide any individual or family applying for occupancy in HUD-assisted housing with the option to include in the application for occupancy the name, address, telephone number, and other relevant information of a family member, friend, or person associated with a social, health, advocacy, or similar organization. The objective of providing such information is to facilitate contact by the housing provider with the person or organization identified by the tenant to assist in providing any delivery of services or special care to the tenant and assist with resolving any tenancy issues arising during the tenancy of such tenant. This supplemental application information is to be maintained by the housing provider and maintained as confidential information. Providing the information is basic to the operations of the HUD Assisted-Housing Program and is voluntary. It supports statutory requirements and program and management controls that prevent fraud, waste and mismanagement. In accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act, an agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information, unless the collection displays a currently valid OMB control number.

Privacy Statement: Public Law 102-550, authorizes the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) to collect all the information (except the Social Security Number (SSN)) which will be used by HUD to protect disbursement data from fraudulent actions.
